You are being informed that this office is handling many such cases and accordingly the date and time of the hearing has been given very diligently and thus it may be treated sacrosanct by you. Any part or inadequate compliance and/or non-representation as per the notice may lead to rejection of the application.

Please be advised that this office handles a significant number of such matters. Consequently, the date and time set for the hearing have been prescribed with utmost care and must be regarded as final and binding. Any partial or insufficient compliance- whether by omission, delay, or non-attendance- may result in the rejection of the application.

You are hereby required to submit your compliance on or before 2 business days of hearing date fixed above via the E Filing Portal. Submission of all required documents through the E Filing Portal is mandatory. If you intend to represent your case solely by submitting documents (i.e., without personal appearance or through AR), please indicate this clearly in your submission.

Should you wish to appear via video conference (VC), you must notify this office at least two business days in advance. Please submit your VC request by e mail, explicitly stating your preference for video conference, well before the scheduled hearing. Please also note that in case you are opting for the VC, all the submissions, along with the power of authorisation (with Photo) in the name of the person appearing for/on behalf of the Assessee, should also be mailed to this office at least two business days in advance.

In whatever manner you choose to represent-whether by document-only submission or personal appearance or though VC-it must be strictly understood that such representation must fully comply with the date and time of the hearing as specified in the notice.
